

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE – SPRING TERM 2019
Applications must be received by Gwent Music no later than 17th December 2018.

Financial Assistance provided by Newport City Council for Gwent Music activities is available as follows:

Applications can be made up to a maximum of £101 per child per term and can be used towards instrumental or vocal lessons, and/or group membership where a charge is applicable.

- Maximum of £65 per term group tuition
- Or maximum of £65 per term towards full cost of individual tuition
- And maximum of £36 per term membership of Music Centre and/or Gwent Ensembles.
- The pupil must be in receipt of free school meals.
- The application must be signed and approved by Head Teacher (primary) or Head of Music (secondary) of the school attended by the pupil. This is to support the application and to confirm that certain criteria have been fulfilled such as good attendance at school. Poor attendance at music lessons may result in future applications being declined.
- Applications are assessed on a first come, first served basis. Once the full grant has been allocated no further funding will be available until the next school term.
- Balance payment may be due to cover the full cost of tuition and activities.
- This grant does not cover hire or purchase of instruments, music, exam entries, etc.
